Contents

8  Foreword by Andrew W. Hahn
Executive Director, Campbell House Museum

10  Preface

12  Acknowledgments

14  PRESERVING HOUSE & TABLE

Robert and Virginia Campbell: A Place in History, A Place at the Table .......................... 19
Virginia’s Cookbook ........................................... 23
Interpreting the Gilded Age Table ....................... 26
Beyond the Fork and Knife ................................. 30
Dining Styles: English, French, and Russian .......... 31
Changing Courses & Tabletop Décor .................... 34
By Invitation .................................................... 39
Table Service and Dinner Decorum ..................... 40
Evening Etiquette ............................................ 40
Presidential Dinners, Receptions, and Feasts .......... 43
The Southern Hotel, Menus, and Bills of Fare .......... 47
Guests Around the Table .................................... 51
The Cook’s Kitchen ........................................... 54
Cooking Around the Recipe: Measurements and Ingredients ............................................. 59
Deciphering Measurements .................................. 60
Pantry Staples and Groceries .............................. 61
Deleted Receipts .............................................. 64
Virginia’s Receipts & Gilded Age Recipes ............ 65
66 SPRING & SUMMER PLATES
Breads, Soups, and Skillet Cakes ................. 67
Meats and Seafood ................................ 76
Vegetables and Sides ............................... 93
Cakes, Cookies, Creams, and Puddings .......... 98
Pickles, Jams, and Libations ....................... 112

124 HARVEST & HOLIDAY FARE
Breads, Soups, and Skillet Cakes ................. 125
Meats and Seafood ................................ 131
Vegetables and Sides ............................... 145
Cakes, Cookies, Creams, and Puddings .......... 150
Pickles, Jams, and Libations ....................... 176

182 SPECIALTIES OF THE HOUSE
Breads, Soup, and Crackers ....................... 183
Meats and Seafood ................................ 187
Vegetables and Sides ............................... 194
Sweets and Libations ............................... 202

210 FEASTING LIKE A CAMPBELL
Historic and Suggested Menus .................... 211

219 Recipe Index

223 Bibliography & Photo Credits

224 About the Author